Lecturer Position in Computer Science

The School of Computing at the University of Georgia invites applications for four full-time, non-tenure track Lecturer positions starting August 2023. The responsibilities of each position include teaching foundational courses in the undergraduate major. Lecturer candidates should hold a Ph.D. degree in Computer Science or a related field. Scholarly credentials should reflect a strong commitment to teaching computer science courses at the undergraduate level. This rank has opportunity for promotion to Senior Lecturer and Principal Lecturer.

The School of Computing (SoC) is a growing and congenial department of 34 faculty within the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Engineering. The SoC has nearly 1,500 undergraduate students, more than 235 graduate students, and offers the B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees in Computer Science, as well as a B.S. and M. S. degrees in Data Science, and an MS degree in Cybersecurity and Privacy. Please see computing.uga.edu for more information about the department and the university.

The School of Computing and the University of Georgia are committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty and students, and to sustaining a work and learning environment that is inclusive. Women, minorities, protected veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. The University of Georgia is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ethnicity, age, genetic information, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation, or protected veteran status. Persons needing accommodations or assistance with the accessibility of materials related to this search are encouraged to contact Central HR (hrweb@uga.edu). Please do not contact the department or search committee with such requests.

The University of Georgia (UGA), a land-grant and sea-grant university with statewide commitments and responsibilities, is the state's oldest, most comprehensive, and most diversified institution of higher education (http://www.uga.edu). UGA is currently ranked among the top 16 public universities in U.S. News & World Report.
