CURRENT OPPORTUNITIES WITH FAST

IMPLEMENTATION CONSULTANT

Implementation Consultants must be able to establish strong working relationships with the clients and interact effectively with all levels of personnel to ensure a smooth implementation.

WHAT YOU BRING

- Degree in Computer Science, Information Systems, Mathematics, or Engineering (graduates from all areas of study with technical training or experience will be considered)
- Experience in a .NET or similar development environment
- Exposure to Structured Query Language (SQL) in Microsoft SQL Server, Oracle, PostgreSQL, MySQL, or similar database management systems
- Strong written and oral communication skills

IMPLEMENTATION INTERN

As an Implementation Intern, you'll be exposed to all of the main components of a full-time position. While working with other FASTies, you'll get real-world experience in communication, technical problem-solving, software testing, and more. Every day includes new challenges and responsibilities, which makes the job interesting and rewarding.

TECH TEAM MEMBER

Tech Team Members support project management in the definition and technical validation of delivery schedules and plans. They ensure consistent and regular progress reviews with escalation and mitigation strategies for any risks.

WHAT YOU BRING

- Degree in Computer Science, Information Systems, Mathematics, or Engineering (graduates from all areas of study with technical training or experience will be considered)
- Experience in a .NET or similar development environment
- Experience in SQL
- Experience in both server and network administration
- Ability to provide hardware and security specification, procurement, and review; code optimization; application troubleshooting; disaster recovery planning and execution; and on-call support

TRAINING COORDINATOR

Training Coordinators are an integral part of project implementation teams. They must have strong organizational skills to create effective training plans. Analytical and problem-solving skills are also key to creating new ways to deliver training.

WHAT YOU BRING

- Degree in Adult Education, Instructional/Curriculum Design, Business Administration, or an equivalent combination of education and experience
- Ability to assimilate technically complex information and express it clearly
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Self-motivation with the ability to work independently
- Personal integrity, confidence, and enthusiasm
