Lecturer Position in Computer Science

The Department of Computer Science at the University of Georgia (UGA) invites applications for a full-time, non-tenure track Lecturer position starting August 2022. The responsibilities of the position include teaching foundational courses in the undergraduate major. Lecturer candidates should hold a Ph.D. degree in Computer Science or a related field. Scholarly credentials should reflect a strong commitment to teaching computer science courses at the undergraduate level.

Computer Science is a growing and congenial department of 35 faculty within the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences. The department has more than 1,280 undergraduate students, more than 180 graduate students, and offers the B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees in Computer Science, as well as a B.S. degree in Data Science and an M.S. degree in Cybersecurity and Privacy. Please see <http://www.cs.uga.edu> for more information about the department and the university.

To apply, please go to <https://www.ugajobsearch.com/postings/226041>. Please upload a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and short statements of teaching portfolio/philosophy. Please provide contact information (email and telephone number) for three references. All applications received by December 01, 2021 will receive full consideration.

The Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, its many units, and the University of Georgia are committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty and students, and to sustaining a work and learning environment that is inclusive. Women, minorities, protected veterans, and individuals with disability are encouraged to apply. The University of Georgia is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ethnicity, age, genetic information, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation, or protected veteran status. Persons needing accommodations or assistance with the accessibility of materials related to this search are encouraged to contact Central HR (hrweb@uga.edu). Please do not contact the department or search committee with such requests.

UGA is the state's oldest, most comprehensive, and most diversified institution of higher education (<http://www.uga.edu>). UGA is currently ranked among the top 20 public universities in U.S. News & World Report. The university's main campus is located in Athens, approximately 65 miles northeast of Atlanta. UGA was founded in 1785 as the first state-chartered university in the country. The University's enrollment exceeds 39,000 students, including over 29,700 undergraduates and over 9,000 graduate and professional students. Academic programs reside in 17 schools and colleges, as well as a medical partnership with Augusta University housed on the UGA Health Sciences Campus in Athens.
